The shift from doctoral studies to faculty roles brings challenges, such as developing course materials, balancing research and teaching demands, and adapting pedagogical approaches to different institutional cultures. To address these common concerns, CHUS (Chinese Historians in the United States) invites you to join an online discussion with three outstanding early-career scholars

Our speakers:

Dr. Kyungsun Lee is an Assistant Professor of Geography in the Department of History at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock.

Bess Xintong Liu is the Visiting Assistant Professor of Music at Kenyon College.

Dr. Yidi Wu is the O'Briant Developing Professor and Assistant Professor of History at Elon University.
